About Jan Suraaj

Jan Suraaj is a mission to bring transformational change in Bihar by strengthening participatory democracy. By bringing together: (a) Sahi Log (Right People); (b) Sahi Soch (Right Thought); and (c) Samuhik Prayaas (Collective Action). It aims to establish a new alternate political system so that Bihar can make a place for itself in the 10 most developed states of the country in the coming years. Jan Suraaj envisions that the political debate in Bihar, instead of focussing on caste-based issues alone, should focus on the state of unemployment, lack of economic and social development and becoming vocal about the real problems on the ground.

Why Jan Suraaj Medha Chatravriti ?

Taking forward Gandhi's vision of empowering families by promoting education among women, Jan Suraaj aims to provide scholarships worth Rs 15,000,00 to 100 women for one year in Bihar. Bihar today has the lowest literacy rate in the country and is the worst-performing state in terms of female literacy at 51.5%. Out of 100 girls born in Bihar today only 44 manage to complete 10th class, meagre 24 complete 12th class and just 3 girls get the opportunity to complete college education.

To address this social issue, committed to the ideologies of Mahatma Gandhi, Jan Suraaj is introducing the Jan Suraaj Medha Chatravriti initiative to ensure monetary support to aspiring female students belonging to financially backward families. Hence, ensuring a brighter future for the daughters of Bihar.

Who Are Eligible for Jan Suraaj Medha Chatravriti ?

Any female upto the age of 25 years, having domicile of Bihar and are currently persuing or have completed class 12th are eligible. Students currently studying in colleges and universities, preparing for competitive exams or have gap year can apply too. State/national level sports players are encouraged to apply for this scholarship.
